TARBORO, N. C., 1878.

Dr. R. H. Stevens: Dear Sir-I feel very grateful for what your valuable midicine, Vegetine, have done in my family. I wish to express my thanks by informing you of the wonderful cure of my son; also, to let you know that Vegetine is the best medicine I ever saw for Chills, Shakes, Fever and Ague. My son was sick with measles in 1873, which left him with Hip-joint disease. My son suffered a great deal of pain, all of the time; the pain was so great he did nothing but cry. The doctors did not help him a particle, he could not him the floor he could not move lift his foot from the floor, he could not move without crutches. I read your advertisement in the Louisville Courier-Journal, that Vegetine was a great Blood Purifier and Blood Food. I tried one bottle, which was a great benefit. He kept on with the medicine, gradually gaining. He has taken eighteen bottles in all, and he is completely restored to health, walks without crutches or cane. He is twenty years of age. I have a younger son, fifteen years of age, who is subject to Chills. Whenever he feels one coming on, he comes in, takes a dose of Vegetine and that is the last of the Chill. Vegetine leaves and that is the last of the Chill. Vegetine leaves no bad effect upon the system like most of the medicine recommended for Chills. I cheerfully recommend Vegetine for such complaints. I think it is the greatest medicine in the world.

Respectfully Mrs. J. W. LLOYD.

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 8.

Exciting Discovery in Baltimore. Last evening while a number of workmen in the employ of Smith & Co., were engaged in cleaning a sink at the house of Mr. Peter Reth, South Wolfe street, they were almost dumbfounded by bringing to light about two bushels of what seemed to be valuable gold and silver

Henry Anton, foreman, it is said, filled two large buckets with the treasure and carried them off. When the fact leaked out the greatest excitement was caused and still prevails .-The coins are chiefly Haytien pieces of small value, made of copper and platinum. The circumstances surrounding the discovery of the coin are of the most romantic character.

Forty or fifty years ago there lived at the corner of Canton avenue and Wolfe street a wealthy boss mason, Henry Middleton by name, who built most of the houses on Fell's Point. The old man died, leaving several children. He was very eccentric, very miserly, and it was said left a large sum of money hidden away in the house. One of his daughters made every effort to find this money, without avail, al though the old man was reputed to be worth from $30,000 to $50,000, and left no visible property of value. Five or six years ago a laborer, Peter Reth, a German, who had gotten together about $2,000, determined to buy a little house, a home for himself and family. One night he had a dream, and he saw pictured before bim a house with a little store under it, behind the counter of which stood his wife. This was the house in which old Middleton had lived, and in his dream many events were pictured which have since occurred. Subse quently Rath bought the house and made some improvements, during which, it is said, a workman discovered a tin box containing valu able treasure, which he secretly took away with him. It is alleged that since that time the workman, who was a poor man, has been in comfortable circumstances. Last week Mr. Reth had another dream, in which a large, portly gentleman, bearing a striking resembling to a daughter of old Mr. Middleton, appeared to him and urged him strongly to clean out a closet in the rear of the house, intimating that he would find something house, intimating that he would find something valuable there. The dream was twice repeated, the old gentleman appearing to be very angry on the third visit, and commanding him to do at once what he bade him. Reth was so much impressed that he had the closet or sink cleaned out as stated, and yesterday evening the workmen took out four large buckets full of coin, which they placed in a potato sack, and, it is alleged, made off with all of them except a small quantity, which were handed over to Mr. Reth. The latter, it is hinted, will take legal proceedings to recover the coin. -Balt, Bulletin of Saturday evening.

VICKSBURG DURING THE SIEGE.—The signal corps headquarters in the city was a room in the court house, and its station was the cupola of the same. The court-house was set on the highest point of the town, and the cupela formed the most prominedt feature of its river facade, except, perhaps, the souring light spire and gold cross of the Catholic Church, which was, I believe, never defaced by the fire of the enemy. Whether this were chance or intention, is another study. I suspect Porter's Pats and Mikes did not want to hurt it. Far otherwise with the temple of Justice. The Federal papers say it was the general centre of their fire and so say I who was in it. The building and grounds were struck twenty four times or more, and yet but one she'l was fatal in its effects. That came at midnight, crushing through the roof and passing below to the marble pavement of the ground floor, exploded and flung two poor fellows against the wall with such mutilation that their mothers would not have known their dead darlings .-They were Mississippi militiamer; their comrades above suffered only less cruelly. The heavy shell passing through the court room, which was packed with sleeping men, struck squarely a massive iron railing that enclosed the seats of the lawyers and witnesses, and scattered its fragments on every hand.

Legs were broken, heads crushed-all maoner of injury inflicted. This one shell killed and disabled fourteen men, and by strange fatality, two more men of those who went out to bury the two first killed lost their lives on their way to the grave yard. This enclosure. also the beautiful City Cemetery, was riddled by the plunging shot. That was doubtless an accident of war. It was charged that the Fed erals did fire on the Marine Hospital, which was full of wounded men, and over which the vellow flag was hoisted. It was struck frequently and wounded men wounded anew, but whether by aim or accident I do not know .-E. S. Gregory.

QUARRELSOME CLERGYMEN.-Muscular Christianity is making some progress in Texas. A little controversy, oral, pedal and legal, has occurred between two ministers of the Gospel -one of them the Rev. R. L. Edwards, of the Christian Church, and the other the Rev. C. W. Scarborough, of the Baptist faith.

On Sunday morning, while on their way to their respective churches to expound the Gospel of love and peace, these two servants of the Lord met in the open prairie, and, on account of some old grudges, had a regular quarrel. In fact, a witness testified that considerable cursing was done and six shooters talked of. Finally they separated and went on to their churches. But these two belligerent preachers met again last Thursday morning; both dismounted and fumbled in their saddlebags, as though they were hunting for pistols (which neither of them had,) just to scare one another. The Rev. Mr. Scarborough weakened first. In short he took to his heels and ran, pursued by Brother Edwards, into Berry Trice's yard. Edwards baving, as he says, scared Scarborough sufficiently, desisted from further pursuit and went on to Waco. Elder Scarborough followed, swore out a warrant, and had Parson Edwards arrested. Edwards made his appearance before a magistrate, and was honorably acquitted of all the charges, and the costs, some $60, taxed against Scarborough.
